

PRESS ALERT : IMMEDIATE

The Southern African Clothing and Textile Workers' Union (SACTWU) is hosting a meeting with workers in the Home Textile Sector. Workers in this sector have been on strike since 7th September 2012, for a decent increase in wages and employment conditions. Workers are being offered a 6.5% increase and have rejected this offer. The meeting is being held to determine a way forward following the outcome of a meeting held between employers and SACTWU on Friday 21st September 2012.

DATE: Tuesday, 25 September 2012

TIME: Present until 13:00

VENUE: Union Hall, 1st floor Industria House, 350 Victoria Road, Salt River, Cape Town.

We invite the media for photo and footage opportunities of the meeting.

If further information is required about the practicalities, kindly contact Nazmia Leite on 0721986061 . For comment please contact Sheila Van Rensburg on 0827112563 or Bonita Loubser on 0828007142.
